Ascheri 2015 Coste & Bricco (Barolo)

Underbrush, ripe dark-skinned fruit, new leather and violet aromas mingle with whiffs of tilled soil and charcuterie. On the firm palate, close-grained tannins accompany dried black cherry, raspberry, licorice, crushed herbs and a hint of game before a drying finish. Give this time to fully develop. Drink 2023–2030.

Ascheri 2015 Pisapola (Barolo)

Forest floor, wild berry, blue flower and pipe tobacco aromas mingle together on this. The savory palate shows tension, delivering juicy black cherry, baking spice and star anise alongside taut, refined tannins. Fresh acidity keeps it balanced. Drink 2022–2030.

Ascheri 2015 Sorano (Barolo)

Earthy aromas of truffle, pressed rose, mature red berries and leather follow over to the palate along with tobacco, crushed mint and a hint of game. It's firmly structured and rather austere, with assertive, dusty tannins that give it a drying, somewhat lean finish.
